1. Management Results

(1) Analysis of management results

Overview of consolidated results for current term

The operating environment for automobile makers remained harsh, with the seemingly recovering China market slowing down entering this year; however some good signs are becoming visible. While severe economic conditions in Eurozone countries continued due to sovereign credit uncertainty, political measures adopted by EU governments since summer of last year are beginning to restore calm in European financial markets. The United States' economy has also recently started along the path to recovery. In addition, the long-running super-strong Japanese yen is headed on a path to correction.

The 2012 fiscal year marks the second year of the JUMP 2013 mid-term business plan, and during the year Mitsubishi Motors focused its efforts on emerging markets, environmental initiatives, and raising profit levels in order to achieve the plan's fundamental goal of "growth and a leap forward."

In the midst of this operating environment, MMC posted a consolidated net sales of 1,815.1 billion yen, a 0.4% or 7.8 billion yen increase over the previous fiscal year, nearly identical to the previous fiscal year's results.

MMC posted an operating income of 67.4 billion yen for the 2012 fiscal year, a 6% or 3.7 billion yen increase over the last fiscal year. Although recall campaign expenses and selling costs increased in fiscal 2012, improvements in the volume and model mix and reductions in materials and other costs contributed this increase. Ordinary income rose 33.0 billion yen, or 54% over the previous fiscal year to a profit of 93.9 billion yen, due to an improvement in non-operating income helped mainly by foreign exchange gain. Net income rose 14.1 billion yen, or 59% over the last fiscal year to 38.0 billion yen as a result of the company recording extraordinary profits and losses – extraordinary profit from the sales of shares in GAC Changfeng Motor Co., Ltd. and an extraordinary loss on the sales of shares in its European production subsidiary, NedCar.

Global retail sales volume for the fiscal year 2012 totaled 987,000 units, a 1% or 14,000-unit decrease over the last fiscal year. Sales by region were as follows:

In Japan, MMC posted a cumulative sales volume of 134,000 units, a 12% or 18,000-unit decrease over the last fiscal year. Despite registered vehicles maintaining a sales volume at about the same level as the last fiscal year, minicar sales lagged, including the eK Wagon which is coming to the end of its current model life cycle.

In North America, Mitsubishi Motors posted a sales volume of 85,000 units, a 20% or 21,000-unit decrease over the previous fiscal year. Although in the United States sales of the Outlander Sport (RVR or ASX in other markets), which went into local production, increased over the last fiscal year, the decrease was due mainly to a drop in overall sales following termination of the U.S. market models in fiscal year 2011.

In Europe, although a sales volume increased over the previous year in Russian market where overall sales demand increased, sales volume decreased in western Europe where overall demand decreased, which resulted in a cumulative sales volume of 181,000 units, a 17% or 37,000 units decrease over the previous fiscal year.

In Asia & Other Regions, Mitsubishi Motors posted a sales volume of 587,000 units, 12% or 62,000-unit increase over the previous year. The growth was driven by strong sales in ASEAN bloc countries where MMC's sales increase outpaced the growth of overall automobile market demand in Thailand.

Notes:

(1) The sales figures above are reported by geographical segment, which is based on an administrative classification created by MMC.

(2) The unit sales, net sales and operating income reported below are supplemental information for the "Consolidated Financial Tables: Segment information". Specifically, results for MMC and affiliated companies in Japan, as well as results for MMC Group-affiliated companies outside of Japan will be outlined.

Results by business sector were as follows:

1. Automotive business

In the automotive business sector, for the year ended March 31, 2013 net sales totaled 1,805.1 billion yen, up 8 billion yen or 0.4% over the previous fiscal year. Operating profit of 65.0 billion yen was up 4.6 billion yen over fiscal 2011.

2. Automobile financing business

In the automobile financing business sector, for the year ended March 31, 2013 net sales totaled 10.1 billion yen, down 0.3 billion yen or 3% over the previous fiscal year. Operating profit of 2.4 billion yen was down 1.0 billion yen over fiscal 2011.

Results by region were as follows:

1. Japan

In Japan, net sales totaled 1,444.6 billion yen, a decrease of 70.5 billion yen or 5% over fiscal 2011 due to lower unit sales. Operating income came in at 9.3 billion yen, decrease of 16.5 billion yen or 64% over fiscal 2011 (Lower revenue and profit).

2. North America

In North America, net sales totaled 175.1 billion yen, a decrease of 13.6 billion yen or 7% over fiscal 2011 driven mainly by lower unit sales. Operating income at negative of 6.0 billion yen (Lower revenue and negative operating profit).

3. Europe

In Europe, net sales came in at 120.8 billion yen, a decrease of 82.8 billion yen or 41% over fiscal 2011 mainly due to lower unit sales. Operating income came in at 11.3 billion yen, up 2.8 billion yen or 34% on fiscal 2011, due to profit improvements from reduction in fixed costs (Lower revenue; however higher profit).

4. Asia and Other Regions

In Asia and Other Regions, net sales came in at 850.7 billion yen, an increase of 215.4 billion yen or 34% over fiscal 2011 driven by higher unit sales mainly in the ASEAN region. Despite a decrease in operating income due to foreign exchange rate fluctuations, sales volume increased; resulting in an operating income of 55.7 billion yen, up 17.9 billion yen or 47% on fiscal 2011 (Higher revenue, higher profit).

Forecast for the 2013 fiscal year

The current consolidated earnings forecast for fiscal year 2013 (ending March 31, 2014) is as follows:

* These forecasts are based on judgments and estimates that have been made on the basis of currently available information, and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Changes in MMC's business environment, market trends or exchange rates may cause actual results to differ materially from these forecasts.

Progress of Mid-term Business Plan

On January 20, 2011 MMC announced the new JUMP 2013 mid-term business plan covering fiscal years 2011 through 2013 (ending March 31, 2014). MMC will continue to push ahead with its efforts in focusing management resources and implementing sustainable reforms as it aims for the "growth and a leap forward" that the new plan calls for. Under the new plan, the MMC will target the needs of emerging markets, where first-time buyer demand is growing rapidly, and of the environment, awareness of which is growing on a global scale. (For details see Section 3. Management Policies (4) Issues facing the Company).

(2) Financial standing

Analysis of assets, debt, net assets and cash flow

Assets at the end of the period totaled 1,452.8 billion yen, an increase of 131.5 billion yen over the end of last fiscal year. Liabilities totaled 1,101.6 billion yen, an increase of 45.9 billion yen compared to the end of last fiscal year. Net assets totaled 351.2 billion yen, an increase of 85.6 billion yen over the figure for the end of the previous fiscal year.

Cash flow from operating activities came to a net inflow of 172.2 billion yen, due mainly to profits from sales of shares in an affiliate companies. This compared to a net inflow of 119.4 billion yen in fiscal 2011. Cash flow from investments came to a net outflow of 114.3 billion yen due mainly from sales of shares in a subsidiary. This compared to a net outflow of 69.1 billion yen in fiscal 2011.

Cash flow from financing activities totaled a net outflow of 8.3 billion yen. This compared to a net outflow of 52.6 billion in fiscal 2011. The balance of cash and cash equivalents at the end of fiscal 2012 stood at 361.2 billion yen. This compared to a balance of 311.0 billion yen at the end of fiscal 2011.

Trends in key cash flow ratios

- All figures are calculated based on consolidated financial data.
- Total market value of shares is the closing market share price at the end of the period multiplied by the number of outstanding shares (excluding treasury shares) at the end of the period.
- Operating cash flows used.
- Interest bearing liabilities indicate all liabilities listed on the consolidated balance sheet for which interest is paid.

(3) Dividend policy and dividends for the term ended March 31, 2012

MMC considers the return of profits to shareholders to be one of the most important goals of management. The increasing intensity of competition in the global automotive industry and the need to develop more advanced environmental technologies today mean that demand on corporate funds is high. It is a basic company policy to regularly divide the fruits of its operations among its shareholders after taking the state of earnings and cash flows into account. Toward this end MMC is working to strengthen and improve its financial base through the implementation of measures and initiatives set forth in JUMP 2013.

MMC regrets to inform shareholders that, in view of MMC's present financial situation, it has decided not to pay dividends on preferred and common stock for the term ended March 31, 2013. MMC respectfully asks for the understanding of its shareholders in this matter.

(4) Business-related risks

Risks that may impact the operating results and financial standing of the MMC Group of companies are outlined below:

Natural and other disasters

MMC maintains production and other facilities in Japan and many parts of the world. The occurrence of a major natural or other disaster, including earthquakes, typhoons, fires and infectious diseases, in these areas may result in the suspension or other serious interruption of operations. MMC has prepared and maintains plans and measures to keep operations going in areas and under situations where the risk of such an occurrence is high and where it would have a serious impact on MMC Group operations. A disaster occurring on scale larger than expected, however, may impact MMC's operating results.

Issuance of common and preferred shares and effect on share price

In June and July 2004, March 2005, and January 2006 MMC issued several classes of convertible preferred shares. All Class B Preference shares, Series 1 – 3 (issued July 2004), have already been converted into common shares. However the conversion of the remaining Class A & G shares into common shares at some point in the future will dilute the existing common shares and may impact their market price.

Foreign exchange rate fluctuations

Overseas sales accounted for around 80 percent of the MMC's consolidated net sales for the term under consideration. MMC endeavors to hedge risks involved in foreign currency receivables and payables through the prudent use of derivative contracts and other instruments but fluctuations in the foreign exchange rates may still impact MMC's operating results.

Country risk

Overseas sales accounted for around 80 percent of the MMC's consolidated net sales for the period. Changes in the economic, political or cultural situation in Japan or in the regions and countries MMC trades with may impact MMC's operating results.

Funding interest rates

As the end of March 2013, the balance of MMC's consolidated interest-bearing debt is 364.4 billion yen. Changes in interest rates on borrowings resulting from changes in financial market conditions may impact MMC's operating results.

Manufacturing cost

The MMC Group sources parts and raw materials from a large number of suppliers to manufacture its products. Any rise in the manufacturing cost of MMC's products due to changes in demand and other market conditions may impact MMC's operating results.

Leasing, financial services and sales incentives

Overcapacity in the auto industry and fierce competition, especially price competition in the North American market, has made it vital to employ sales incentives in order to promote sales.

The use of sales incentives lowers the selling price of a new car. Because of this, the continued use of sales incentives may cause further reductions in used car re-sale prices and in the assessed value of cars returned at the end of lease contracts. Reductions in used car re-sale prices may impact MMC's operating results in future. Reductions in used car re-sale prices may also impact the security value of cars purchased using auto loans and may also impact the asset value of cars on leasing contracts.

Changes in laws and regulations

MMC is subject to laws and regulations governing protection of the environment, product safety and other matters in the countries where it operates. Additional costs incurred in order to conform to any revision, strengthening of or additions to, these laws and regulations may impact MMC Group operating results.

Tie-ups and alliances

MMC engages in a variety of activities through operational tie-ups and alliances with auto manufacturers and other companies both in Japan and overseas for the purpose of conducting and expanding its operations. MMC Group operating results may be impacted in the event of a particular situation arising at such a tie-up or alliance company and which is beyond the control of MMC.

Dependence on particular suppliers

MMC sources raw materials and parts from a large number of suppliers. The necessity to procure materials and parts characterized by higher quality or more advanced technologies at more competitive prices may bring about a situation in which orders are concentrated upon a specific supplier. There may also be only a limited number of suppliers able to supply parts for which a specific technology is required. Consequently, MMC Group operating results may be impacted in the event that some unforeseen situation arises and interrupts deliveries from such suppliers.

Infringement of intellectual property rights

In order to distinguish its products from those of other auto manufacturers MMC endeavors to protect its own technologies, know-how and other intellectual property as well as to prevent the infringement of third party intellectual property rights. MMC Group operating results may be impacted, however, in the event that a third party unlawfully uses MMC Group intellectual property to manufacture and sell "copies" of its products, or in the event that limitations in the legal system in certain countries in relation to the protection of intellectual property rights results in a reduction of sales or results in legal costs, or in the event that an unforeseen third party intellectual property right requires a halt in manufacturing or sales or the payment of compensation.

Impact of Lawsuits

A risk of potential lawsuits with business associates or other third parties is unavoidable as MMC carries its business operations. Any decision made for legal procedures on a dispute unfavorable to MMC's claim or prediction may impact MMC's the operating results.

In February 2010, MASRIA CO., Ltd. (hereafter "Plaintiff"), a former MMC distributor in Egypt, filed a lawsuit against MMC for dissolution of a distributor agreement between MMC and the Plaintiff including a 900 million USD claim for damages. The judgments in both the first instance and the second instance found in favor of MMC on October 26, 2010 and July 3, 2012 respectively. The case is pending in the final appellate instance after the Plaintiff appealed on July 21, 2012 for the judgment in the second instance.

MMC's notice to terminate the distributor agreement with the Plaintiff followed the legal process and the claim by the Plaintiff was found to be irrational. Thus, at this time, MMC does not consider this legal case will result in a great impact on MMC's operating results.

2. The Mitsubishi Motors Corporation Group of Companies

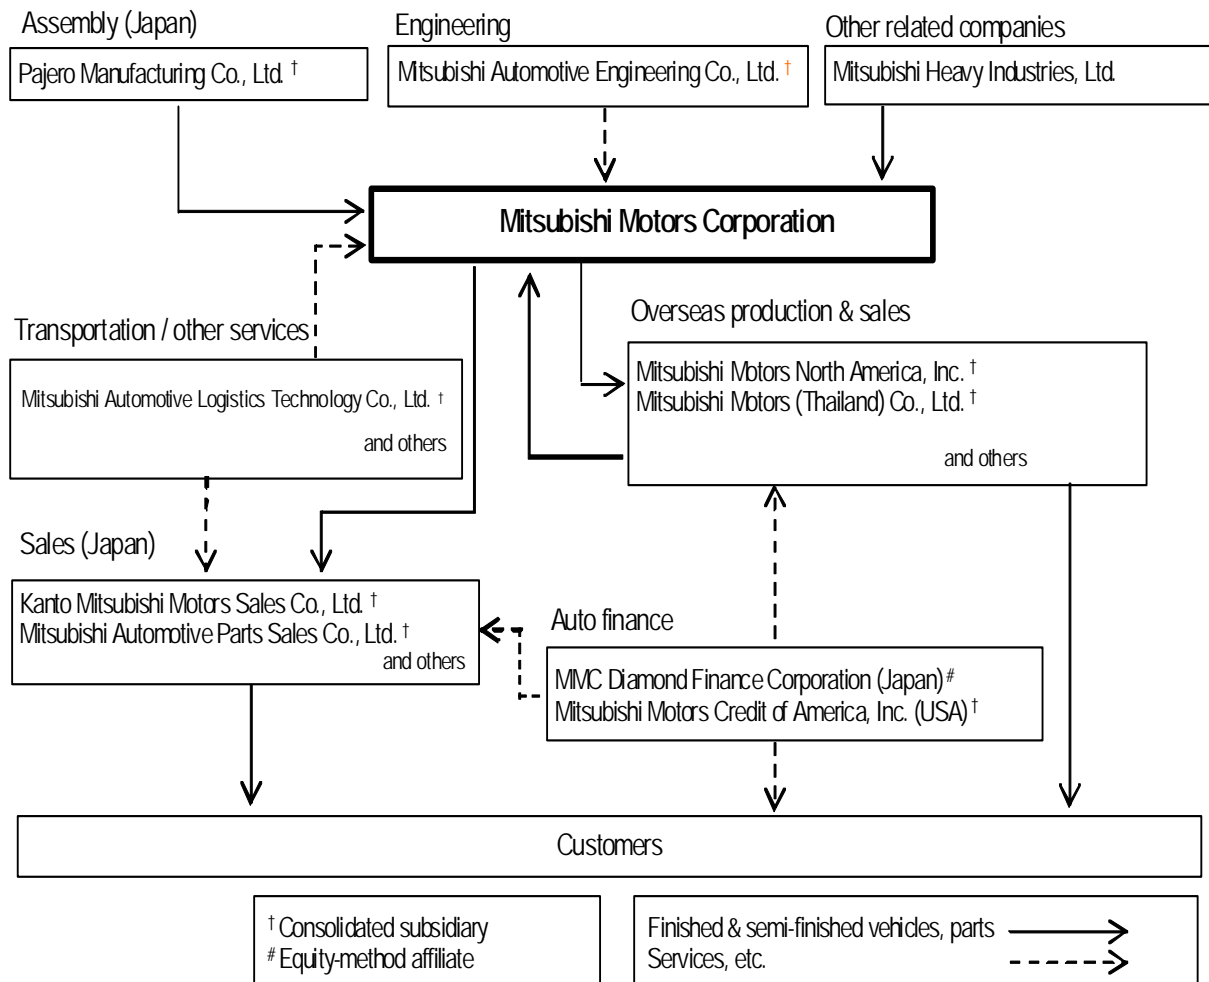

The MMC Group of companies comprises Mitsubishi Motors Corporation, 51 consolidated subsidiaries and 24 equity method affiliates (as at March 31, 2013). The MMC Group is engaged in the development, production and sales of passenger vehicles and their parts and components, as well as in auto financing operations. MMC conducts most of the development work.

Japan, MMC produces standard and small passenger cars and minicars, while Pajero Manufacturing Co., Ltd. produces some Mitsubishi-brand sport utility vehicles (including the Pajero). Mitsubishi-brand vehicles are sold in Japan by Kanto Mitsubishi Motors Sales Co., Ltd. and other Mitsubishi Motors sales companies. Mitsubishi Automotive Engineering Co., Ltd. undertakes some of the development of MMC products. Mitsubishi Automotive Logistics Technology Co., Ltd. is responsible for the transport of Mitsubishi-brand cars throughout Japan and also for some predelivery inspection and maintenance work.

As to MMC Group operations outside Japan, Mitsubishi-brand cars are produced and sold in North America by Mitsubishi Motors North America, Inc. and in Thailand by Mitsubishi Motors (Thailand) Co., Ltd.

Auto lease and financing services are provided by MMC Diamond Finance Corporation, and by Mitsubishi Motors Credit of America, Inc. in the United States.

The MMC Group structure and constituent company products and services outlined above are shown in the diagram below.

3. Management Policies

(1) Basic management policy

"We are committed to providing the utmost driving pleasure and safety for our valued customers and our community. On these commitments we will never compromise. This is the Mitsubishi Motors way."

This corporate philosophy is the cornerstone to all of MMC's corporate activities in its quest to remain and grow as a company that enjoys the trust of its shareholders, customers, business associates, employees and all other stakeholders.

The phrase "For our valued customers and our community" refers to MMC's determination to place the utmost importance on its customers and the local communities it operates in. All corporate activities are conducted with customer satisfaction as the foremost consideration. To this end, MMC devotes its energies and resources to developing environmental technologies and to the pursuit of vehicle safety. By earning customer satisfaction in this way MMC aims to remain a company in which society places its trust.

The phrase "The utmost driving pleasure and safety" refers to MMC's determination to make clear the direction engineering and car building MMC is taking. The vehicles that MMC offers customers reflect the ideals of "Driving Pleasure" and "Reassuring Safety." MMC builds cars that balance on and off-road performance – the fundamental appeal of a car – with the safety and reliability that encourage customers to drive Mitsubishi cars with confidence and reassurance for many years.

The phrase "On these commitments we will never compromise" refers to the uncompromising attention to detail that MMC gives to its car design and building activities and that distinguishes MMC from others. In its approach to designing and building cars MMC leaves no stone unturned in its commitment to discovering new values that earn customer satisfaction and enrich the car ownership experience.

The phrase "Committed to providing" refers to the importance that MMC attaches to continuity. MMC passionately believes that by constantly challenging new frontiers and pushing the envelope in its design and building activities it can continue to offer customers cars that reflect and embody the next evolutionary stage in traditional MMC values.

(2) Management indices

MMC does not currently employ ROE, ROA or other such management performance indices. MMC is, however, working toward sustainable growth by devoting its energies and resources to tackling the tasks set out in the JUMP 2013 mid-term business plan.

(3) Medium- and long-term management strategy

All MMC Group directors and employees will work together in devoting their energies to executing the JUMP 2013 mid-term business plan that covers the period from fiscal 2011 through fiscal 2013 (end of March 2014).

(4) Issues facing the Company

Gazing into the future, a steady improvement in the operating environment for automobile makers is expected in the short term due to a correction in the yen, an improvement in consumer as well as corporate confidence stemming from a rise in stock market values as well as recovery in overseas economies. However, big changes loom ahead with growth in emerging markets, stagnation in advanced markets, wide fluctuations in foreign exchange rates, and increasingly fierce competition among automobile makers in the mid- and long-term.

Amid this situation, going into the last year of the JUMP 2013 mid-term business plan, the Mitsubishi Motors Group will continue to work toward accomplishing a "growth and a leap forward" by focusing on the following:

- i. Focusing management resources on emerging markets and environmental technologies.
- ii. Making radical reforms to the Company's cost structure.
- iii. Seeking opportunities to increase profitability through operational tie-ups and alliances.

iv. Strengthening the Company's management foundation.

Mitsubishi Motors will strive for expanded profit through focusing on these items, along with introducing products that comply with market needs and establishing a cost structure that can weather foreign exchange fluctuations. In particular, Mitsubishi Motors will expand global sales volume by leveraging new product such as the all-new eK Wagon, eK Custom, and an upcoming tall wagon in Japan – all developed and planned through the NMKV joint venture with Nissan - and the sequential global rollout of the Outlander and the Outlander PHEV with its unique EV-derived Plug-in Hybrid EV System.

Issues concerning MMC's recall process raised by the recent recall regarding possible oil leaks in minicar engines filed in December last year remain. Therefore MMC will continue moving forward with efforts to strengthen its focus on customer care and safety by following through on implementation of the "Customer First Program," an initiative to promote company-wide quality reforms, starting from the 2013 fiscal year.

MMC places the highest priority on compliance in its implementation and execution of all the initiatives described above and to ensure that it does not damage the trust it enjoys from its customers and society at large MMC will give even greater consideration to its relationship with the environment and with society.

Through constantly reassessing its internal control system, MMC will further enhance its corporate governance and redouble its efforts to ensure corporate compliance and the appropriateness and efficiency of operations management.

Mitsubishi Motors Corporation wishes to thank its stockholders and all stakeholders for their support and guidance to date and humbly asks for their continued support and guidance in the years ahead.

Segment information:

1) Overview of reportable segment (from April 1, 2012 to March 31, 2013)

The reportable segments of the Group are components for which discrete financial information is available, and for which operating results are regularly reviewed by MMC's decision making bodies including the Board of Directors to make decisions about resource allocation to the segments and to assess their performance.

The main business of the Group is automobile business, involving development, design, manufacturing and sales of automobiles and component parts. In addition, as financial service business, we engage in sales finance and leasing services for Group products. Accordingly, based on the types of products and services offered, the Group determined "automobile business" and "financial service business" as two reportable segments.
